November 2010 Newsletter From the Youth Pastor

There is definitely a chill in the air and fall has certainly arrived. It is already November and the holiday season is upon us. November always reminds me to be Thankful. It reminds me to be thankful for family, friends, the things God has provided for me, and the simple things in life we often take for granted. My wife, Missy, works in the Rehab Department at Baptist Hospital and is constantly helping people who have had serious injuries get back to a semi-normal life. She and her co-workers are reminded everyday to be thankful for those things we all take for granted. Be thankful today for life. Share with someone close to you how thankful you are for them.

There are several things to be aware of in November. Daylight Saving time Ends November 7 - so turn your clocks back one hour before going to bed Saturday night. (Otherwise you might be early for church) Also keep an eye out for your parent meeting packets. Wednesday night parent meetings are hard to pull together during the month of November because of the Christmas musical practices on Wednesday nights that many of our parents are involved in. Instead of holding a meeting this go round, I will be sending/handing out packets with parent information toward the end of the month. Also remember the website is the best place to go for information on Inside Out.
